

2010 CAMS ANNUAL SCIENTIFIC MEETING

Merrill Lynch Conference Center

North Tower, 4 World Financial Center | NY, NY 10080 | Saturday October 30, 2010

A Symposium On Infectious Disease

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

The program is designed for the presentation of a number of commonly seen infectious diseases encountered by a physician in his/her private practice. Particular emphasis is made of infections that frequently afflict Chinese American patients. The diagnosis and management of these infections are presented. The conference is targeted to family physicians, specialists, nurses as well as medical residents and students.
